

Search

I'm in search of a word
But I can't seem to find it
I seek hurt from the world
Cuz I can't feel anything

All these lies you keep telling me
How can I be brave?
If you can't even face me honestly
I'm bold that's the queer in me
We're running out of breath
I don't need your implications

I'm in search of a word
But I can't seem to find it
I seek hurt from the world
Cuz i can't feel anything

If I'm older
maybe I'll know better
Once I'm older
Maybe I'll sleep better

I am young and maybe naive

I don't know anything

That I ask so many questions

I keep on searching
I won't stop learning
When you say it's hard
I'm all ears...
I'm in search of a word
But I can't seem to find it
I seek hurt from the world
Cuz I can't feel anything

I'll go somewhere
Where everyone is not there
I'll be somewhere
Waiting till you come and see

[Break]

You can waste your time
Tryna get that money
I don't waste my time
I'm out here come find me
Wishin in my life
I can see you happy
Endlessly...
I'm in search of a word
But I can't seem to find it
I seek hurt from the world
Cuz I can't feel anything
If im older
Ill get older
Hoping I'll sleep better
